

THE CULTURAL EVENT OF THE YEAR

SCA Oplenac and our guests soloists from the Serbian National Ensemble
KOLO - Belgrade, invite you to a premiere gala concert:

a Serbian Story 2

Come and experience the most beautiful past, present and future!

The audience will be taken through time and will experience many cultural aspects of different Serbian regions in a dynamic and energy packed show.

Traveling down a magical path of harmonious on-stage performance and song - you finally arrive at the wedding day celebration and get immersed in a magnificent ambience followed by uplifting burst of emotion and energy!

THE SERBIAN NATIONAL FOLK DANCE ENSEMBLE
KOLO
KOLIBA PRVOSRBIA I MIPAL KITECANA CRKVA

Premiere of the 2012 Program.
A must see event!

Professional ensemble KOLO is the Serbian government's Official Guardian of folklore tradition.

Performers present a moving museum.
A showcase of national costume treasures.

A rare opportunity to see the talent of the two most renowned Serbian Folklore Dancers of this era - The First Soloists of the Serbian National Ensemble KOLO.

SCA Oplenac the best folk dance performing team ever assembled outside Serbian proper lead by soloists from the Serbian National Ensemble KOLO, accompanied by the SCA Oplenac Orchestra.

Art Director: Vladimir Spasojevic - Director National Ensemble KOLO: Radojica Kuzmanovic

Orange County, May 20TH 2012 - 7:00PM

Servite High School Theatre, Anaheim, CA 1952 W. La Palma Ave.

For tickets call: (760)-525-3721 or (562)-397-9001; buy on-line at: www.oplenac.ca

Tickets $30 (children under 12, $15). For more info go to www.facebook.com/oplenac

Please reserve early event will sell out.