

SERBIAN COMMUNITY CULTURAL EVENT OF THE YEAR
SCA OPLENAC INVITES YOU TO A PREMIERE GALA CONCERT:

A Serbian Story

SCA Oplenac the best folk dance performing team ever assembled outside Serbian proper accompanied by the National Oplenac Orchestra.

Art Directors:

Radojica Kuzmanović

Saša Bogunović

Premiere of the 2016 Program.

Performers present a moving museum.
A showcase of national costume treasures.
Over twenty costume changes in two hours of energy packed program.
A rare opportunity to see the talent of some of the most renowned Serbian Folklore dancers of this era.
A must see event!

A Serbian Story, performed at the Harris Theatre in 2010, was the most watched Serbian Cultural Event in Chicago history. The show received standing ovations in 2012 for performances throughout all of the major cities in California.

After the New York concert in 2015 it was said that the City has not witnessed a Serbian folklore concert of this caliber since the performances by AKUD Krsmanac from Belgrade in 1989.

VANCOUVER - SUNDAY MAY 15TH 6:00PM

LAURA C. MUIR PERFORMING ARTS THEATRE

700 Royal Avenue, room 4100, Fourth Floor North, New Westminster

Call: 604-781-5129 or 778-835-8671

E-mail: info@oplenac.ca Purchase on-line: www.oplenac.ca

Tickets $30

For more info go to www.facebook.com/oplenac Please reserve early it will sell out fast.

SCA Oplenac is a nonprofit organization and all proceeds go to the preservation and presentation of Serbian culture and tradition in North America.