

The Cultural event of the year
SCA Oplenac Toronto invites you to premium gala concert:

A Serbian Story

Come and experience the most beautiful past, present and future!

Dream with your eyes wide open as images of childhood, stories, songs and dances intertwined in the head of a young girl on the day of her wedding get transformed into a live on-stage performance!

Traveling down a magical path of harmonious on-stage performance and song - you finally arrive at the wedding day celebration and get immersed in a magnificent ambience followed by uplifting burst of emotion and energy!

Premiere of the 2010 Program.
A must see event !

Performers present a moving museum.
A showcase of national costume treasures.

A unique opportunity to see the most renowned Serbian folklore dancers in diaspora today.

Enjoy in the heavenly voices of Oplenac singers and witness the artistic masteries of dancers.

www.oplenac.ca

SCA Oplenac the best folk dance performing team ever assembled outside Serbian proper lead by art director Vladimir Spasojevic, accompanied by the Orchestra and Choir SCA Oplenac.

Windsor/Detroit, April 24rd 2010 - 8 PM

Doors open at 7pm. After-concert party until 1am.

Serbian Centre 6770 Tecumseh Road East Windsor, ON N8T 1E6 (519) 944-4884 <http://www.serbiancentre.com>

Tickets $30 on sale first week of March at following locations:

Serbian Centre 6770 Tecumseh Road East Win., (519) 944-4884 / Euro Trade 1600 Ottawa Street, Win., 519-258-9435
Marina's Deli 3119 Forest Glade Drive, Win., 519-735-8181 / Union Bakery 4081 Tecumseh Road East Win. Ont. 519-944-4323
Balkan Bakery 1515 Tecumseh Road East Win., (519) 972-4829

Detroit visitors can reserve tickets by calling (519) 944-4884, reserve early event will sell out.

North American Premier Event. See it a month before the Chicago & Toronto debut in two of the most prestigious North American Theatres! For the best seat selection - reserve your tickets today!